TZEACHTEN YOUTH SOCCER ASSOCIATION

BYLAWS

Part 1 – Interpretation

1.1 In these bylaws, unless the context otherwise requires,

- (a) "Club" means the soccer club run by the society to be known as "Tzeachten FC" or such other name as the directors of the society may determine from time to time;
- (b) "directors" means the directors of the society for the time being;
- (c) "Player" means a person:
 - (i) that was registered with the Club to play soccer in the relevant season;
 - (ii) such registration occurred on or before August 1 for play in the relevant season; and
 - (iii) has paid all dues owing to the Club;
- (d) "Societies Act" means the Societies Act of the Province of British Columbia from time to time in force and all amendments to it;
- (e) "registered address" of a member means his or her address as recorded in the register of members.

1.2 The definitions in the Societies Act on the date these bylaws become effective apply to these bylaws.

1.3 Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa; and words importing a male person include a female person and a corporation.

Part 2 – Membership

2.1 Subject to bylaw 2.6, the members of the society, from time to time, are:

- (a) the initial directors of the society, until such time as they have resigned;
- (b) the parents or legal guardians of any Player that is under the age of 18 years of age at the relevant time;
- (c) all Players that are 18 years of age or older at the relevant time;
- (d) any other person appointed to membership by the directors from time to time in their sole discretion.

2.2 The directors of the society shall be empowered to bestow, from time to time, honorary membership in the society upon such persons as may be nominated in writing for such membership by three members of the Society in good standing and on acceptance by the directors shall become an honorary member. Honorary members shall be comprised of those members who have been offered membership in the society in recognition of outstanding service to the society or the community.

- 2.3 Honourary members of the society will be members in name only and as such shall not be obliged to pay dues, shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the members of the society, nor shall they be entitled to receive notice of or attend any meetings of the members of the society.
- 2.4 Every member shall uphold the constitution and comply with these bylaws.
- 2.5 The amount of the first annual membership dues shall be determined by the directors and after that the annual membership due shall be determined at the annual general meeting of the society.
- 2.6 A person, or that person's parents or legal guardians in the case of Players that are under the age of 18 at the relevant time, shall cease to be a member of the society:
 - (a) by delivering his or her resignation in writing to the directors of the society or by mailing or delivering it to the address of the society;
 - (b) on his or her death;
 - (c) on being suspended by in accordance with bylaw 2.7, for the duration of such suspension;
 - (d) on being expelled in accordance with bylaw 2.7;
 - (e) on that person ceasing to be a Player;
- 2.7 A member may be disciplined, suspended or expelled by the directors in their sole discretion for disciplinary or other reasons.
- 2.8 Before a member is disciplined, suspended or expelled the society must send to the person written notice of the proposed discipline, suspension or expulsion, including reasons and give the member a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the society respecting the proposed discipline or expulsion.

Part 3 - Meetings of Members

- 3.1 Annual general meetings of the society shall be held as and when the directors determine, provided that all such meetings are held as and when required under the Societies Act.
- 3.2 Every general meeting, other than an annual general meeting, is an extraordinary general meeting.
- 3.3 The directors may, when they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting. Members may, from time to time, requisition an extraordinary general meeting of the members, provided that such requisition is made in accordance with the Societies Act.

- 3.4 Notice of a general meeting shall specify the place, day and hour of meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business.
- 3.5 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of a notice by, any of the members entitled to receive notice does not invalidate proceedings at that meeting.

Part 4 - Proceedings at General Meeting

- 4.1 Special business is:
- (a) all business at an extraordinary general meeting, except the adoption of rules of order; and
 - (b) all business transacted at an annual general meeting, except,
 - (1) the adoption of rules of order;
 - (2) the consideration of the financial statements;
 - (3) the report of the directors;
 - (4) the report of the auditor, if any;
 - (5) the election of directors;
 - (6) the appointment of the auditor, if required; and
 - (7) the other business that, under these bylaws, ought to be transacted at an annual general meeting, or business which is brought under consideration by the report of the directors issued with the notice convening the meeting.
- 4.2 No business, other than the election of a chairman and the adjournment or termination of the meeting, shall be conducted at a general meeting at a time when a quorum is not present.
- 4.3 If at any time during a general meeting there ceases to be a quorum present, business then in progress shall be suspended until there is quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.
- 4.4 A quorum is 3 members present or a greater number that the members may determine at a general meeting.
- 4.5 If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be terminated; but in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present constitute a quorum.
- 4.6 Subject to bylaw 4.7, the president of the society, the vice president or in the absence of both, one of the other directors present, shall preside as chairman of a general meeting.

4.7 If at a general meeting:

- (a) there is no president, vice president or other director present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting; or
 - (b) the president and all the other directors present are unwilling to act as chairman,
- the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

4.8 A general meeting may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

4.9 When a meeting is adjourned for 10 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.

4.10 Except as provided in this bylaw, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting.

4.11 No resolution proposed at a meeting need be seconded and the chairman of a meeting may move or propose a resolution.

4.12 In case of an equality of votes the chairman shall not have a casting or second vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a member and the proposed resolution shall not pass.

4.13 A member in good standing present at a meeting of members is entitled to one vote. Parents or guardians of Players that are under the age of 18 have one vote collectively.

4.14 Voting is by show of hands.

4.15 Voting by proxy is not permitted.

Part 5 - Directors and Officers

5.1 The directors may exercise all the powers and do all the acts and things that the society may exercise and do, and which are not by these bylaws or by the statute or otherwise lawfully directed or required to be exercised or done by the society in general meeting, but subject, nevertheless, to:

- (a) all laws affecting the society;

- (b) these bylaws; and
- (c) rules, not being inconsistent with these bylaws, which are made from time to time by the society in general meeting.

- 5.2 No rule, made by the society in general meeting, invalidates a prior act of the directors that would have been valid if that rule had not been made.
- 5.3 The directors may, in their discretion, appoint any officers they so chose, including, without limitation a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer provided that all such officers shall also be directors of the society.
- 5.4 No person shall be entitled to serve as director of the society for longer than 10 years in their lifetime. No person shall serve as Secretary or Treasurer for more than 2 consecutive terms of office, provided that if they do not hold either position for a minimum of one full term, they may be re-appointed as Secretary and/or Treasurer for up to 2 more consecutive terms.
- 5.5 The number of directors shall be not fewer than 4 and can be such greater number determined from time to time at a general meeting.
- 5.6 The terms of office of the directors shall be up to 3 years, at the discretion of the directors. The directors may stagger terms of office to provide for continuity.
- 5.7 Separate elections shall be held for each office to be filled.
- 5.8 An election may be by acclamation, otherwise it shall be by ballot.
- 5.9 If no successor is elected the person previously elected or appointed continues to hold office.
- 5.10 The directors may at any time and from time to time appoint a member as a director to fill a vacancy in the directors.
- 5.11 A director so appointed holds office only until the conclusion of the next following annual general meeting of the society, but is eligible for re-election at the meeting.
- 5.12 If a director resigns his office or otherwise ceases to hold office, the remaining directors shall appoint a member to take the place of the former director.
- 5.13 No act or proceeding of the directors is invalid only by reason of their being less than the prescribed number of directors in office.

- 5.14 The members may by special resolution remove a director before the expiration of his term of office, and may elect a successor to complete the term of office.
- 5.15 No director or officer shall be remunerated for being or acting as a director or officer but a director or officer may be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred while engaged in the affairs of the society.

Part 6 - Proceedings of Directors

- 6.1 The directors may meet together at the places they think fit to dispatch business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, as they see fit.
- 6.2 The directors may from time to time fix the quorum necessary to transact business, and unless so fixed the quorum shall be a majority of the directors then in office.
- 6.3 The president shall be chairman of all meetings of the directors, but if at a meeting the president is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the vice president shall act as chairman; but if neither is present the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman at that meeting.
- 6.4 A director may at any time, and the secretary, on the request of a director, shall, convene a meeting of the directors.
- 6.5 The directors may delegate any, but not all, of their powers to committees consisting of the director or directors as they think fit.
- 6.6 A committee so formed in the exercise of the powers so delegated shall conform to any rules imposed on it by the directors, and shall report every act or thing done in exercise of those powers to the earliest meeting of the directors to be held next after it has been done.
- 6.7 A committee shall elect a chairman of its meetings; but if no chairman is elected, or if at a meeting the chairman is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present who are members of the committee shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 6.8 The members of a committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper.
- 6.9 For a first meeting of directors held immediately following the appointment or election of a director or directors at an annual or other general meeting of members, or for a meeting of the directors at which a director is appointed to fill a vacancy in the directors, it is not necessary to give notice of the meeting to the newly elected or appointed director or directors for the meeting to be constituted, if a quorum of the directors is present.

6.10 A director who may be absent temporarily from British Columbia may send or deliver to the address of the society a waiver of notice, which may be by letter, telegram, telex or cable, of any meeting of the directors and may at any time withdraw the waiver, and until the waiver is withdrawn,

- (a) no notice of meeting of directors shall be sent to that director; and
- (b) any and all meetings of the directors of the society, notice of which has not been given to that director shall, if a quorum of the directors is present, be valid and effective.

6.11 Questions arising at a meeting of the directors and committee of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes.

6.12 In case of an equality of votes the chairman does not have a second or casting vote.

6.13 No resolution proposed at a meeting of directors or committee of directors need be seconded and the chairman of a meeting may move or propose a resolution.

6.14 A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors and placed with the minutes of the directors is as valid and effective as if regularly passed at a meeting of directors.

Part 7 - Duties of Officers

7.1 The president shall preside at all meetings of the society and of the directors.

7.2 The president is the chief executive officer of the society and shall supervise the other officers in the execution of their duties.

7.3 The vice president shall carry out the duties of the president during his absence.

7.4 The secretary shall:

- (a) conduct the correspondence of the society;
- (b) issue notices of meetings of the society and directors;
- (c) keep minutes of all meetings of the society and directors;

- (d) have custody of all records and documents of the society except those required to be kept by the treasurer;
- (e) have custody of the common seal of the society; and
- (f) maintain the register of members.

7.5 The treasurer shall:

- (a) keep the financial records, including books of account, necessary to comply with the Societies Act; and
- (b) render financial statements to the directors, members and others when required.

7.6 The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person who shall be known as the secretary treasurer.

7.7 When a secretary treasurer holds office the total number of directors shall not be less than 5 or the greater number that may have been determined pursuant to bylaw 5.4.

7.8 In absence of the secretary from a meeting, the directors shall appoint another person to act as secretary at the meeting.

Part 8 - Seal

8.1 The directors may provide a common seal for the society and may destroy a seal and substitute a new seal in its place.

8.2 The common seal shall be affixed only when authorized by a resolution of the directors and then only in the presence of the persons prescribed in the resolution, or if no persons are prescribed, in the presence of the president and secretary or president and secretary treasurer.

Part 9 - Borrowing

9.1 In order to carry out the purposes of the society the directors may, on behalf of and in the name of the society, raise or secure the payment or repayment of money in the manner they decide, and, in particular but without limiting the foregoing, by the issue of debentures.

9.2 No debenture shall be issued without the sanction of a special resolution.

- 9.3 The members may by special resolution restrict the borrowing powers of the directors but a restriction imposed expires at the next annual general meeting.

Part 10 - Auditor

- 10.1 This Part applies only where the society is required or has resolved to have an auditor.
- 10.2 The first auditor shall be appointed by the directors who shall also fill all vacancies occurring in the office of auditor.
- 10.3 At each annual general meeting the society shall appoint an auditor to hold office until he is re-elected or his successor is elected at the next annual general meeting.
- 10.4 An auditor may be removed by ordinary resolution.
- 10.5 An auditor shall be promptly informed in writing of appointment or removal.
- 10.6 No director and no employee of the society shall be auditor.
- 10.7 The auditor may attend general meetings.

Part 11 - Notices to Members

- 11.1 A notice may be given to a member, either personally or by mail to him at his registered address.
- 11.2 A notice sent by mail shall be deemed to have been given on the second day following that on which the notice is posted, and in proving that notice has been given it is sufficient to prove the notice was properly addressed and put in a Canadian post office receptacle.
- 11.3 Notice of a general meeting shall be given to:
- (a) every member shown on the register of members on the day notice is given; and
 - (b) the auditor, if Part 10 applies.
- 11.4 No other person is entitled to receive a notice of general meeting.

Part 12 - Bylaws

12.1 On being admitted to membership, each member is entitled to and the society shall give him, without charge, a copy of the constitution and bylaws of the society

12.2 These bylaws shall not be altered or added to except by special resolution.

Part 13 - General

13.1 In the event of winding up or dissolution of the society, funds and assets of the society remaining after the satisfaction of its debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to such organization or organizations concerned with the same social problems or organizations promoting the same purpose of this society as many be determined by the members of the society at the time of winding up or dissolution, and if effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provisions, then such funds shall be given or transferred to some other organization referred to in this paragraph which shall be a charitable organization or charity recognized by the Department of National Revenue as being qualified as such under the provisions of the Income Tax Act of Canada, from time to time in effect.

13.2 The purposes of the society, as set out in its Constitution, shall be carried out without purpose of gain for its members, and any profits of other accretions to the society shall be used for promoting its purposes, and all of the above purposes shall be carried on an exclusively charitable basis. This clause is unalterable.
